All about the location

Located in an authentic enclave in the Serra de Tramuntana. Close to routes and places of tourist interest such as the Campanet Caves with more than three thousand square metres of galleries and rooms. The cavern was discovered by chance in 1945, and after extensive refurbishment work until 1948, when it began to be exploited by tourists.
The Ufanes springs are the most unique hydrological phenomenon on the island of Mallorca. It is a spring with intermittent outcrops that spring up in a diffuse, very powerful and sudden manner, after the accumulation of sufficient rainfall in the Puig Tomir massif and its surroundings.
Golf Pollença, inaugurated in 1986, is an idyllic course where you can enjoy golf, the views of the Serra de Tramuntana and the bays of Pollença and Alcúdia.
Pollença with its special attraction is renowned in the cultural and artistic world.
The lighthouse of Formentor inaugurated in 1863. The Cala Sant Vicente, the Royal Yacht Club of Puerto Pollença, the Alcudiamar tourist and sports harbour in Puerto de Alcudia as well as being connected to the routes through the Cultural Landscape of the Serra de Tramuntana which demonstrate the Exceptional Universal Value required by Unesco to be declared a World Heritage Site.
