A first impression

Fantastic historic finca from the 18th century in an idyllic valley between Pollensa and Campanet with stunning views of the Tramuntana mountains with license for a rural hotel. This magnificent property is largely in its original historical state and is excellently preserved. Set on approx. 107 hectares of land, it is surrounded by extensive oak and pine forests as well as fields and meadows.

The stately part of the main house frames a large picturesque courtyard from which one can access, among other things, the former staff house and the old oil mill. A passageway through a semicircular arched vault leads to the former cellars, which now serve as guest quarters and banqueting hall. Above the banquet room is another large room which is currently used as a yoga room. The former oil mill has been completely restored and offers many possibilities for use. Other parts of the main house and side houses have not yet been developed or are not currently in use, offering enormous potential for future development.

In the manor house, which is exclusively for private use, there is a large entrance hall divided into different areas. From there we access two bedrooms and a bathroom, a living room with fireplace and the historic kitchen and dining room. From there you enter the hotel's modern kitchen, another dining room and finally the huge banquet room with vaulted ceilings and several large seating areas.

From the entrance hall, the staircase leads to the second floor with a large living room as well as 6 further bedrooms and several bathrooms.

Set amidst beautiful gardens with mature trees, this exceptional property also has 6 cottages for 4 persons each, designed for agritourism. The accommodations are decorated in typical Mallorcan rustic style and are very generously sized, each with its own living room and kitchen, as well as a fireplace.

The vacation homes have their own separate swimming pool and sun terrace.

The property also has numerous other farm buildings that are used for agricultural purposes.

Above the farm, on its own mountain, there are two more houses in the holm oak forest that are not yet in use.

This property is a piece of Mallorcan history in a fantastic location near Pollensa with endless possibilities. The Vall d'Aixartell is the most beautiful valley near Pollensa with its extensive vineyards framed by the peaks of the Tramuntana mountains. We will gladly send you the complete exposé on request.

A unique opportunity, visit it without doubt!
