A first impression

The finca from 1900, which is in need of renovation, is situated on a plot of approx. 15,374 m² and has 4 bedrooms. The existing structure offers the possibility of free design and can be remodeled according to the buyer's ideas.

Due to its generous plot area, it offers a wide range of possible uses. The house itself has enough space for a family or as a vacation home for those seeking relaxation. With a little renovation work, a dream property can be created here.

The house is in a rural, quiet area with vineyards and olive groves, where you can enjoy nature to the full. The interior of the house is kept simple, but offers plenty of potential for individual design ideas. The rooms are spread over different levels, creating an interesting spatial concept.

Outside, there is a spacious garden area that is ideal for creating a terrace or pool. Here you can spend warm summer evenings relaxing outdoors.

Overall, this property is a house with a lot of potential that can be transformed into a modern and cozy home through renovation. With its idyllic location and generous plot, it offers the perfect opportunity to realize the dream of owning your own home in the countryside.
