A first impression

This spacious plot with an area of approx. 2,007 m² is located in Son Gual and has a license for an impressive building project. An exclusive villa with a living area of around 700 m² is planned, combining modern design and the highest living comfort.

On the first floor, there will be a spacious living and dining room that flows seamlessly into an open kitchen. Large window fronts will ensure a light-flooded ambience and a harmonious connection between indoor and outdoor areas. There is also a spacious bedroom on this level, which is also flooded with natural light, as well as a stylish bathroom. The first floor is dedicated to the sleeping area and comprises three spacious bedrooms and two elegant bathrooms. All rooms are designed to receive plenty of natural light and offer a pleasant living atmosphere.

A special highlight of the villa will be the roof terrace, which will be equipped with a chill-out lounge. A pergola will provide pleasant shade, while a separate area is planned for solar panels to use sustainable energy.

The outdoor area of the property features a spacious terrace with comfortable seating and an inviting chill-out zone. A well-tended garden with Mediterranean plants frames the property and gives it a special touch. A small path leads to the spacious swimming pool, which ensures relaxing hours in the open air.

Additional features of this exclusive property include a water and electricity connection, a spacious cellar and impressive views of the surrounding countryside, not forgetting the famous Son Gual golf course in the immediate vicinity.

The offer includes the plot and the granted building license, but not the finished villa
